ASLRRA’S LINDA BAUER DARR TO LEAVE IN JULY FOR NEW POSITION

WASHINGTON – June 6, 2018 – Today the American Short Line and Regional Railroad Association’s Chair, Judy Petry, announced the Board of Director’s acceptance of Linda Bauer Darr’s resignation, effective July 27, 2018.

“Linda has made significant contributions during her tenure with ASLRRA, including standing up the Short Line Safety Institute, successfully advocating for the 45G tax credit, and adding a new level of professionalism to our publications and events,” said Judy Petry, Chairwoman of ASLRRA. “We congratulate Linda on her new opportunity, and wish her well.”

Linda Bauer Darr has accepted the role of CEO of the American Council of Engineering Companies commencing in August of this year.

“It has been a great pleasure to work alongside a committed board and a talented staff focused on the advancement of our industry. I am proud of what we have been able to accomplish together, and confident that with the Strategic Plan in place, the organization will continue to be strong and relevant amid unprecedented change,” said Linda Bauer Darr, President, ASLRRA.

About ASLRRA - The American Short Line and Regional Railroad Association (ASLRRA) is a non-profit trade association representing the interests of the nation’s 600 short line and regional railroads and railroad supply company members in legislative and regulatory matters. Short lines operate 47,500 miles of track in 49 states, touching in origination or termination one out of every four cars moving on the national railroad system, serving customers who otherwise would be cut off from the national railroad network.
